

SIAMS survey – September 2023

'The best three thing about the school from my point of view are...'

- Staff are always willing to help when they can, school is encouraging for all ages and abilities and my daughter has enjoyed working her way up through the school.
- The way each staff know every child and treats them individually.
My children are respected and encouraged to be themselves.
The community feel when you walk through those gates each morning.
- It is a very kind and caring school. My daughter feels safe and supported both in her learning and with her mental wellbeing. The school is very much a family, everyone is welcome and parents are supported if they need help as well. We could not ask for more.
- It's location relative to our house.
The small community feel to it.
The general vibe the school promote and events they put are enjoyable for students and staff.
- Staff are welcoming and friendly
Children are well cared for and encouraged to do well
- Relationship with the village community relationship with the church visits to the church
Christian values for each rearm
- The diversity and inclusion ethos
- Joy, love for learning & team spirit
- Caring teachers. Understanding teachers. kind teachers
- Striving for better
clear values
great leadership
- It's community spirit connection with church and local community staff are kind and approachable and go above and beyond to help the children and parents
- Friendly and Approachable staff
- The amazing teachers
the schools values
the relationship between school and families.
- My child has grown in confidence and enjoys sharing religious stories and songs she has learnt at school.
- The experience they have
- Christian values
Church visits
- Each child is encouraged to explore their beliefs.
Assemblies have amazing themes which are then spoken about through-out the day.
The children are spoken too rather than told off, they develop a strong sense of trust with their adults.
- Friendly and approachable staff
- My child loves going to school
My child is happy
My child enjoys learning
- Best teachers
Good communication
Giving proper support
- How Christian values underpin everything, how it feels like an extended family, how well the staff know the children
- The beliefs and how they put them across

- The support we're currently receiving in relation to SEND struggles and attending school. Mrs Chesterton, Mrs Tooth and Mrs Morgan have all been happy to give me time to talk to them and strategies are being put in place to help
- Skilled teachers who care about the children in their class an exciting well rounded curriculum
- The Headteacher is extremely approachable and always willing to listen to any and all questions
The values are not only taught but practiced
The children's personalities are encouraged and appreciated
- Staff, SLT and community
- Community, engagement in the kids development and opportunities for the children to express themselves
- How you don't dismiss children's feelings instead place value on them and help them if they have any upset feelings
How you let the children be children without pushing them too hard but also making sure they learn to the best of their ability
All staff are very lovely and you do many fun things with the children e.g. year 6 learning how to make money by doing simple tasks such as selling stuff after school or teaching other kids gymnastics
- Teaching Christian values
