What is a PFSA?

Parent and Family Support Advisors have been appointed to schools across Somerset to work directly with children and their families and carers along with other services to improve student participation and learning opportunities.

The overall aim of the PFSA role is to respond to early indications that children and families could benefit from additional support.

Aims of a PFSA

To support parents and carers.

To strengthen communication between school and home.

To improve pupil attendance and achievement .

To ensure parents and carers are aware of outside agencies offering help and advice.

To encourage parents and carers to take an active part in their child's education and the running of their school.

PFSA's offer

Confidential and flexible support, advice and guidance.

Knowledge and assistance in accessing the right support services for you and your child .

Partnership working with parents, carers and multi agencies.

Free service for all school users.
